SCSO seeks public's help locating missing/endangered juvenile

Seminole Co. (Feb. 26, 2017) - The Seminole County Sheriff's Office (SCSO) is asking the public for help locating missing/endangered 14-year-old Samantha DaSilva.

At approximately 3 p.m., Samantha and her sister left their home located in the 2900 block of Willow Bay Terrace in unincorporated Casselberry, to go to a nearby park. At around 4:30 p.m., Samantha's sister returned home, but Samantha was not with her. Family members are concerned about Samantha's well-being, as she recently made threats to harm herself.

Samantha is a white female, 5'3' tall, weighs approximately 120 lbs., with short gray or partially gray hair and brown eyes. A photo is attached to this release. She was last seen wearing a dark blue sweatshirt with AEagle (American Eagle Outfitters) lettering on it and light colored blue jeans.

Anyone with information on Samantha's whereabouts is urged to call 911 or the SCSO at 407-665-6650.
