Woman arrested for four counts of Child Neglect, DUI, and Probation Violation

Seminole Co. – (March 13, 2017) – On March 11 at approximately 2:12 p.m., Seminole County Sheriff's deputies responded to a traffic crash in the area of Tuskawilla Road and Aloma Avenue, in unincorporated Oviedo.

Upon arrival, deputies spoke with Johanna Martinez who was in her vehicle with four children, ages 7-12 years old. Martinez appeared to be confused and was unable to tell deputies what road she was on or what direction she was travelling. A series of field sobriety tests were conducted, and based on Martinez's performance, she was arrested. Martinez was booked into the John E. Polk Correctional Facility on four counts of Child Neglect, two counts of Probation Violation, and Driving Under the Influence. She remains incarcerated on a no bond status.

No injuries were reported as a result of the accident.

Arrestees:

Johanna Martinez (DOB 03/07/88), 14231 English Street, Orlando
